

ADMINISTRATIVE STANDARDS

Department of Community Development Administrative Standards for Social Media Use for County Accounts

Tillamook County encourages work related use of social media to facilitate communication with constituents and sharing of information in support of the mission and business of Community Development.

Pursuant to Tillamook County Social Media Use Policy, Tillamook County departments engaging in social media must develop and adopt operational and administrative standards for social media use. Per policy guidelines, the county has an overriding interest and expectation in deciding what is spoken on behalf of the county on social media sites. Therefore, operational, and administrative standards must be reviewed and approved by the chief administrative officer, or designee, before a social media account is established for a department or division within a department.

The Tillamook County Department of Community Development has developed and adopted the following administrative and operational standards for social media use. These operational and administrative standards are used in conjunction with Tillamook County Policy IS-4 Social Media Use Policy. Employees authorized to post content on behalf of Community Development understand and will comply with the following standards.

1. Pursuant to Policy IS-4, the head of Community Development is ultimately responsible for all content that appears on the social media accounts operated by the Department of Community Development. The head of Community Development further designates the following person to exercise administrative authority over the social media accounts operated by the Department of Community Development:
Thomas J. Fiorelli

2. Community Development authorizes the following person(s) to communicate on behalf of the department on social media accounts(s):
Thomas J. Fiorelli, Lynn Tone, Allison Chase

3. Community Development intends to establish accounts on the following social media platform(s) to share information in support of the mission and business of the department:
4. Facebook – Housing Commission

5. _____
6. _____
7. Community Development recognizes that social media use is authorized for county/department business purposes and must comply with federal, state, and county laws, rules, and regulations, and county and department policies and procedures.

8. Community Development intends to update and maintain the accounts as necessary when information needs to be shared with the public, and check on messages at least once a week intervals.
9. Removal of the account or any of its contents may be determined by the department head or designee, Information Services Director, County Counsel, or Board of Commissioners.
